April Festivities

April is here, bringing brighter days, fresh spring air, and plenty of opportunities to come together and enjoy the season.

We'll start the month by recognizing Passover beginning at sundown on April 1st, alongside a bit of fun with April Fool's Day — a lighthearted way to kick things off.

On April 3rd, we'll observe Good Friday, followed by Easter on April 5th, a time for reflection, and celebration.

We'll also be recognizing World Health Day on April 7th, a great reminder to focus on well-being and taking care of ourselves and one another.

On April 10th, we celebrate Siblings Day, a special moment to appreciate the bonds and memories shared with family.

Our Bus Trip on April 14th will give residents a chance to get out, enjoy the spring weather, and spend time together outside the building.

We're also excited to welcome an ACSS Class Visit on April 16th and 20th, bringing connection, conversation, and lots of smiles into our community.

During the week of April 19th, we'll recognize National Volunteer Week, taking time to appreciate all the incredible volunteers who make such a difference in our home.

On April 22nd, we'll celebrate Earth Day, a great opportunity to appreciate nature and the world around us.

We'll wrap up the month by celebrating our April birthdays on April 23rd, with treats, music, and plenty of birthday cheer.

April is all about fresh starts, new energy, and enjoying the little moments that come with the season. We're looking forward to another wonderful month together at Jackman Manor! 🌸 ✨

Reflecting on March

One of the highlights of March was our March Birthday Party, where we came together to celebrate our residents.

It was such a nice afternoon filled with smiles, music, and good company. We had Mark Wolfe join us as our entertainer, and residents really enjoyed the music — it added such a fun and lively feel to the celebration.

Everyone had a great time chatting, laughing, and spending time together. There was a warm, happy energy in the room, and you could tell how much everyone was enjoying the moment. Of course, the treats were amazing as well, making the celebration even more special.

It's always so nice to take time to recognize our residents and celebrate these moments together.

The birthday party was a great way to bring everyone together and was definitely a highlight of the month. 🎂 ✨
